« Meret is ordering a café and a croissant. Pablo too. It is early spring and a bit chilly but the terrasse is already full. When she stretches her arm to reach the sugarbox, Pablo notices the incongruity of her fur bracelets and can't escape the thought of a fur lined world. she pauses. 'Even this cup, saucer and spoon!' she replies. They are still laughing when Man joins the table a few minutes later. He orders a café and a croissant aswell . »
